Car Rolls Over

Mokena Girl Seriously Injured

Harriet Hoogstra, 16 years old, of 9610 191st st., Mokena, was seriously injured Monday morning when her car skidded in the loose gravel after striking a hole in Francis road, and rolled over, coming to rest on its side in a ditch on the north side of the road.

Miss Hoogstra, who was alone in the car, was enroute to Lincoln-Way High school, shortly before 8 am. She is one of the students invited to take a special science course at the school this summer. A motorist who was traveling about half a block behind the girl summoned help and Miss Hoogstra was taken to Silver Cross hospital in the Baskerville ambulance.

The girl was thrown out of the car when it rolled. She suffered a broken pelvis, a broken ankle, a broken nose and a severe gash in the upper right leg that required 20 stitches to close.

Some part of the metal work of the car pierced her leg and just missed an artery. Had the artery been slashed the young ster could have bled to death, it was said.

The accident took place where the road curves slightly away from the north. It is the third curve west of Wolf road, about a mile from Mokena.

Argue on Subdivision at Mokena

There was no meeting of the Mokena village board this week for lack of a quorum but some of those who would locate a 2,000 home development adjacent to the village utilized the occasion to urge again that their plans be given a green light.

Board members present had no comment to make to the importunities of the subdividers and the mutterings of some of the land owners that "this is getting to be like Russia when a man can't sell his land to whoever he pleases" and the session broke up on a yes and no note by the home planners—they might take their plans to some other place or they might elect to build a city of their own.

The subdividers, according to their Attorney, Albert H. Krusemark, would like to be a part of the village of Mokena, they would like to cooperate with the village, they would—if annexed—be willing to pay building permit fees to the village, but they want no part of any village regulations concerning subdivisions which call for blacktop streets, curb and gutters, and sidewalks. That would make the lots too expensive—maybe $4,000 a lot, it was said. And of course, they would have to install water and sewer mains.

When it was brought up that 2,000 homes would only add to the cost of doing business to schools and other governing bodies and necessitate additional buildings, William Weber, himself a Chicago school teacher, and opposed to the location of industry at Mokena, spoke up in favor of putting schools on a double shift, a device that is opposed by most educators.

Schools aren't used enough, Weber declared, and he believes that putting them on a double shift basis would be a good thing. He believes too much emphasis is being placed upon school plants. He is in favor of less money on buildings and more money for teachers.

Clarence Lauffer and Edward Lauffer, and Elmer Benson said they had opportunity to sell farm land now but couldn't if the area were reserved for industry. Apparently they have had offers from the people who propose to subdivide the area between the eastern edge of Mokena and U. S. 45, south of the Rock Island railroad tracks.

It was pointed out they could sell to whoever they pleased. The subdividers, on leaving, indicated they might give the problem a whirl in court and those who would preserve a balance in Mokena as to residential, commercial and industrial property have indicated they would welcome such a move.

The problems attendant upon placing huge housing developments in the country have been causing headaches to many communities, it was brought out, and many places would like to know how far they can go in regulating such things.

Mokena has adopted a land use map which designates the land along the Rock Island tracks east of the village for a mile and a half as classified for industrial purposes. The village also has adopted an ordinance giving them control over the setting up of subdivisions inside or within a mile and a half radius of the village and also a new zoning ordinance.

The village board was scheduled to meet Tuesday night and take bids on oiling the sides of village streets to control the dust that is rousing the ire of Mokena housewives. But not enough trustees reported to make a quorum. Ray Westlund is on vacation and out of town; Philip Hacker is ill; Charles Hostert, who attends few board meetings, was called but said he couldn't be there.

The board members who were present were about to leave when the subdividers and the men who own the land affected appeared and the debate was on.

Fatal Current

Charge in TV Stack Kills Boy

A leak of voltage from a TV set that charged an antenna stack is said to be responsible for the death of 5-year old Scott James Walsh, of Homer township.

The boy, wet from playing in a wading pool, slipped and fell near the base of the aerial. He grasped the metal stack to help himself up but before he could stand erect he staggered back several steps and fell unconscious.

His mother, Mrs. James (Arlene) Walsh and a neighbor rushed the youngster to Silver Cross hospital, Joliet, where he was pronounced dead.

An investigation by Coroner Willard G. Blood and Deputy Sheriff John Shelly with the aid of two electrical experts, revealed that when the plug for the set was placed in an outlet in one position the set was properly grounded, but that if the plug were turned the other way the set was not grounded. Instead approximately 120 volts of electricity flowed into the aerial.

The aerial is supposed to be insulated so that should it become charged the current would not get into the mast, it was explained. Apparently this aerial was not insulated because the current is alleged to have been transmitted to the mast or stack.

This stack is triangular shaped with the legs about 18 inches apart. They were embedded in dry concrete but did not penetrate the earth, it was said. The experts say dry concrete acts as an insulator.

The boy being wet, and standing where it was wet, caught the full impact of an intensified charge and it stopped his heart.

The incident occurred about 2 o'clock in the afternoon of Wednesday, July 15. According to the coroner's report, Scott and his sister, Robin, 4 years old, and two neighbor boys, Kenneth Reid, 9 and Gary Reid, 8 years old, had been playing in a wading pool. They had emptied the pool and had planned to turn on the garden hose for the purpose of further wetting each other.

It was then that Scott slipped and fell.

Besides the parents and sister, the youngster is survived by his paternal grandmother, Mrs. John Walsh of Mokena, and his maternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Victor Zaloudek, of Lockport township.

Removal was to the Tezak funeral home at Joliet where services were held Saturday morning with the Rev. Ray Hamer, pastor of the Marley church, officiating. Interment was in St. John's cemetery, Mokena.

Burial was in St. John's cemetery. Mr. Volck was born at Chicago Jan. 19, 1872, the son of the late John and Sarah Volck. When he was 14 years old he moved with his parents to a farm on 167th st., north of Mokena. He retired from farming in 1945 and moved to the Mokena address. For the past several months he made his home with his nephew Harold Sayers and family. He died

Frankfort Board Adopts 1959 Tax Levy Ordinance

The Frankfort village board adopted its 1959 annual tax levy ordinance at the regular meeting on Monday night of this week.

The ordinance calls for a levy of approximately $16,000 which is about $3,000 higher than that of last year. Village Attorney Albert H. Krusemark explained that the tax rate for the village is the same as last year but assessed valuations being greater, more money will be available.

The expenses of the village are greater, it was pointed out, so if more money is available it can be utilized.

Altho the levy is for $16,000 the village attorney said, it is not likely that the full amount will be realized when the county clerk's office spread the taxes. The amount of money realized, Krusemark said, probably will be about $2,000 less than the amount set forth in the ordinance.

The village board adopted an ordinance annexing the 155 acres in the McIntosh subdivision, north of U.S. 30 and west of U.S. 45. The realty firm, which had made $15,000 available to the village to apply on the cost of the community's sanitary sewer program when tentative approval was given its subdivision plat, announced that the balance of $50,000 was now available.

The realty firm is advancing $65,000 on the sewer and will be reimbursed thru connection fees collected by the village.

The village also adopted an ordinance annexing some E.J. & E. railroad right of way plus 40 acres at the south end of the village. This property had been annexed previously, but because of a legal technicality it was necessary to annex it again.

No action was taken on the land use map drawn by the planning engineers employed by the village and the subdivision control ordinance recommended by the firm, plus a proposed zoning ordinance, were not acted upon. The village attorney was to make some revisions in both measures as agreed upon at previous meetings of board members but did not have them ready, it was reported.

Turks Drop Criminal Charge; Ask Cash For Personal Injury

After weeks of worry and uncertainty, the case of James F. Tomany, 19 sailor son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Tomany, New Lenox, has been brought to a satisfactory conclusion.

The lad, held on charges by the Turks on which he could have been sentenced to five to 10 years imprisonment, has been cleared of any criminal intent. And now, after the U. S. government, thru the navy, indemnifies a Turkish national for the accidental loss of an eye, young Tomany will be free.

Payment for the injury is expected to take place July 30, and as soon as that has been accomplished the navy will lose no time in getting him out of Turkey an official of the judge advocate's office in that service has assured the parents.

The parents, naturally, are very happy at the outcome.

"Mrs. Tomany, the other members of the family and myself are grateful to all who have helped and to the government for its action," Mr. Tomany said. "We have been worried for sometime and I know that Jimmy has been worried too. It is a relief to know that arrangements have been made to close the case."

James Tomany and another Illinois sailor were arrested last September by police at Izmir, Turkey, as they were enroute from a NATO recreation center to get back to their ship.

They were members of the crew of USS Barry which was on maneuvers with the 6th Fleet. A Turkish flag had been torn down and mutilated. Tomany and his companion were accused of the act, a charge which they have steadfastly denied. There were no witnesses according to information obtained by the navy, but when the two youths were brought to trial in a Turkish court a day or two after their arrest, an old watchman was called as a witness who claimed that he saw the two sailors mutilate the flag.

Last Chance to Aid Swimming Pool Project

Thursday and Friday, July 23 and 24, will be the last opportunity for Tinley Park residents to underwrite the initial expenses for the village's proposed swimming pool. According to Lyle E. Nelson, chairman of the Lions Club committee handling the project, money now in hand will cover all expenses of the campaign, and every dollar now received will go toward engineering, promotion and other expenses of the pool.

"We've heard from many friends around town that a swimming pool is needed and wanted—these next two days will give us evidence of the accuracy of this feeling. Certainly the 60 members of the Lions Club can't underwrite the expenses themselves. We need the support of the entire village, and as of now far less than half of our 1,400 families have been willing to support the campaign."

"Since the pool is for the entire village, and since a good share of the bonds to finance the project will have to come from the village, the support given these next few days in underwriting preliminary expenses will serve as a gauge to exactly how badly our citizens do want a swimming pool," Nelson declared.

This first phase, the Cadillac campaign, will close at a dinner dance in Sanger ballroom, beginning at 6:30 Friday, July 24. An even 1,000 opportunities were offered in this campaign, and only about 700 have so far been purchased. Since a great number of these have been sold outside the village, it appears that interest and support from Tinley Park itself leaves much to be desired, Nelson says.

A door to door campaign is underway, but any person not contacted at his home may secure one of the certificates at the Tinley Park Savings and Loan and the Western Tire and Auto Store.

180 Freshmen Are Enrolled at Lincoln-Way

The high school at Lincoln-Way has recently completed all students' schedules and are now in the process of making the necessary room assignments. Most of the enrollments were completed by the students before school was out last month.

At the present time there are 180 enrolled in the freshman class, 171 in the sophomore class, 182 juniors and 160 seniors. This would make an increase in the total school enrollment of 63 students.

School will officially open for all freshmen on Thursday, Sept. 3, and for all students on the following day, Sept. 4.

Freshmen are reminded to complete their physical and dental examinations as early as possible. Local doctors and dentists have urged the parents make these arrangements well in advance of the opening of school.

New students planning to attend L-W who haven't registered should do so immediately. Several classes have already been filled which will eliminate some selection of elective subjects.

Mayor Makes Appointments of Committee Heads

On July 10, at an adjourned board meeting, Tinley Park Mayor Elmer Knudsen, appointed chairmanships to trustees as follows: Public service committee, Joseph McCarthy; public buildings and parks, John Condron; permits and licenses, Robert Suhs; public ways, John Bannes. He also appointed Ray Sullivan, director of civil defense, and Phil Dykstra and Robert Bridge as assistant directors.

NEW LENOX LAD

sentenced to 10 months in a Turkish prison at Izmir. They finished their terms early this month but by that time young Tomany was facing a new charge.

A Turkish prisoner had lost an eye and Tomany was charged with being responsible. If found guilty he could have been sentenced to from five to 10 years in prison.

From correspondence from the navy the lad's father understood that while James was whitewashing the walls of his cell some of the whitewash splattered and some of it went into the eye of a Turkish prisoner who was watching the progress of the work. The incident, Mr. Tomany believed occurred the latter part of April.

Under Turkish law, young Tomany was charged with a criminal offense and because the man lost his eye only the high penal court at Izmir had jurisdiction. Had the eye been saved James could have been sent to jail for from three to 20 months if found guilty.

With the loss of the eye the penalty jumped to five to 10 years.

In a letter received from his son this week Mr. Tomany learned that the incident on which the charge was made took place on Nov. 21, 1938. James was plastering a wall in his cell instead of whitewashing it, as navy's correspondence had it.

There was a hole in the wall under a window, James said, and he threw in a trowel of plaster. Some of the plaster flew off and struck a bar in the window and a small amount passed thru a small opening in a piece of hardware cloth that covered the bars.

The boy said he heard some one shout and then more commotion. He made inquiries and from a guard prisoner had been watching him work by looking thru the window from the outside. One of them, the guard said, had gotten some of the plaster in his eye.

The matter was carried on prison records as an accident, it develops now, and so the navy apparently had no knowledge of the event until the latter part of April when Tomany was arrested on the new charges.

His parents were unable to get satisfactory information and only vague reports from the navy. They learned that James had been released from the Turkish prison and was being held in the hospital at the U. S. Air Force base at Izmir.

For a time there was a question of whether the government or James would have to pay the attorney fees in the new case against him.

Hearing on the charges was set for July 15.

In the meantime the parents were advised by their attorney in Joliet to get action on the case by publicizing it and appraising officials of the situation.

The story, which was first carried by The Semmler Press was given to national press services and metropolitan dailies. Mr. Tomany wrote the President, Gov. Stratton, U. S. Senator Everett Dirksen and Cong. Noah Mason.

He also telephoned Sen. Dirksen's office at Washington on Monday of this week and learned that they had made inquiries but had been unable to get any satisfactory information and were taking the case up with the state department.

Mr. Tomany also called the navy at Washington and talked with various bureaus but without much satisfaction until late in the afternoon when he received a call from a Commander Neese of the International Law Division of the Judge Advocate's office of the navy.

Neese told him that at the trial held July 15 the Turkish prisoner who lost the eye (apparently a young chap) and his mother had both testified that they were satisfied the entire affair had been accidental. It was also brought out that the prison had marked the case as accidental on its records and it was because of that, Neese explained, that the navy hadn't been informed of the incident.

While Tomany was cleared of any criminal action at the hearing July 15, the judge stated that he believed the Turk was entitled to damages for the loss of his eye and that he would continue the case until July 30.

On that date, the judge said he expected someone to appear in court ready to make payment. The judge didn't say who he expected to appear nor how much money he should bring.

The inference was that inasmuch as Tomany is a sailor in the U. S. Navy that the government would take care of the damages and could be depended upon to do the handsome thing. But if there was to be some discussion of the sum 15 days were allotted for that task.

Commander Neese assured Mr. Tomany that the government was prepared to pay and that as soon as payment was made the navy would remove the lad from Turkey.

That the navy was convinced of the innocence of the two sailors in the alleged flag mutilation case was evidenced by the fact that a board was called to investigate the case and it recommended that both lads be retained in the navy so they could complete their enlistments. Both have good records in the navy.

Boys Lose Sling Shots to Police

The Tinley Park police department had a quiet week. Among minor complaints of the usual dog bites, was one made by the janitor at Central school that some boys with sling shots were menacingly close to the school building. The young Davids had their ammunition confiscated by police.

Another complaint, made by Harry Trevarthen, 17056 67th ct., was that nine pieces of fencing, each 24 inches long, were taken from his home Sunday night.

Table decorations were fashioned in the theme of a miniature garden, with lovely figurine of a young lady standing in the center. Overhead was a sprinkling can, with sprays formed of tiny pastel satin ribbons ending with tiny roses. Snapdragons in pastel colors and tall yellow tapers completed the decor.

Crystal glass, including an antique punch bowl in Early American pattern was used in serving the luncheon. Nut cups carried out the theme, bearing tiny hand made pennants, topped with miniature pink roses. Each pennant bore a scrambled word, and was presented to Judith. When the words were unscrambled, they conveyed a message to her. An other unusual feature was each guest was given a slip of pastel colored paper, on which was written a question, answered by the guest and given to Judith for her memory book.

Miss Roe is to be married to Ronald Fulton of Tinley Park on Aug. 8. She is the daughter of Mrs. Shirley Blacklock.

Knock Off Hazel Crest, Mokena And Matteson in Last 3 Starts

Duane Erickson scattered 11 hits over 7 innings as Orland Park Police team continued to dominate play in the Police League with an easy 11-3 conquest of Hazel Crest last Sunday at Orland Park.

Orland has just four games left on the regular season schedule and it begins to look like another police championship for the boys from the Orland town. It will be the 2nd in a row for them.

Erickson had 14 men on base in all, allowing only three to cross the plate. It seemed that every inning there was trouble brewing, but he had the extra when he needed it. That extra was plenty as his mates, getting just one more hit than Hazel Crest, counted plenty of runs.

Things appeared plenty shaky in the 1st inning for the unbeaten Orland nine. Erickson was reached for two of the three runs of the contest and the Orland team was retired in short order without a run.

However, in the bottom of the second they came roaring back to tatter Mr. Bogue, the Hazel Crest starting pitcher for 4 big runs and they continued scoring in every inning until the 6th.

Roger Chatlosh lashed out 3 hits as the leadoff hitter for the winning Orland Park nine. Erickson, in addition to his fine hurling, counted for Orland with 2 hits.

In a game at Mokena last Friday the Orland Ruths came in their hitting clothes and won easily, 12 to 6. The visitors got 14 safeties with Knapp as their leading batsman with two triples and a double. He was out once trying to stretch a 3-base hit to 4. Merwin was the winning pitcher. Miller relieved Mueller on the mound for Mokena and turned in a nice performance allowing but 3 hits in 3½ innings.

In a game with Matteson earlier the Orland staved off a 7th inning rally to win 6 to 4. Orland made all of its runs in the 4th inning. Halverson was the winning pitcher. He gave up 7 hits and 5 passes. Three of the losers' 4 runs were earned. Hoegner gave up 5 hits and 6 bases on balls for the losers. The other Matteson pitcher, Grosche, yielded 2 hits and issued no passes.

Ken Young is Named Co-Captain Of Valparaiso Univ. Grid Squad

Two experienced grid veterans who hold four Valparaiso varsity football awards between them have been named co-captains of the 1959 squad.

Hedaad Coach Emory Bauer and Associate Coach Walter Reiner announced this week that Ken Young, Orland Park, one of the finest defensive backs in Crusader football history, and Jim Wacker, Detroit, Mich., a lanky tackle with outstanding desire, are the appointees.

Young, who has caught the eye of several National Football league clubs, was the starting quarterback in 1957 and 1958 but gave way last year after the third game to Noel Schlegelmilch, Michigan City, Ind.

A 6-4, 205 pound workman, Young will be used as an offensive end and as defensive safety this year following successful experimentation in this position combination in spring drills.

The big guy grabbed four passes as an end, scoring once, and intercepted four more as defensive safety, racing 98 yards with one stolen toss for a TD.

Equally adept in basketball, the Chicago Luther South product tried college basketball for the first time last winter and was a starting forward by the third game of the year.

All of the frosh-soph games will be played on the Satur-

Ni Sala's Clout Wins for 'A's'; Tigers Victors

NiSala's hit in the last half of the 6th inning brought victory for the Athletics over the Cardinals in the Homer Little League. In an encounter of two days previous the Cardinals were well beaten by the Tigers 16-0.

The Athletics had led thru the entire game with the Cardinals, but the Cards came up with four big runs to tie the game in the top half of the 6th.

Then came NiSala's hit for the Athletic victory in the final half of the frame.

Tom Shephard hit a grand slam home run in the third inning to start the Tigers rolling to their 16-0 victory over the Cardinals.

Browsing Through The Cold Stove League

By DEAN DALLAS, Sports Editor

Tony Bettenhausen decided to drive the stock cars and feels that he probably should have given this circuit a little more time. He has been driving twice and has given an excellent account.

Last week Tony won the 150-mile feature at Milwaukee in a 1958 Ford. He took the lead on the first lap and never dropped behind in his second startling success.

A few weeks previous he had driven his first late model stock car race at Nashville, Tenn., and finished second.

In both events he has beaten the National Stock Car champion of 1958.

He has been surprised at the ease of driving these late model stocks.

In the latter part of August he will hit the Big Car trail with a race at Springfield, Illinois.

Tony is optimistic. He is again driving the John Zink special. This was the car that helped Tony win the National Big Car Championship in 1958.

The Little League is definitely not an answer to the problems of our youth and is not afeeder for the major leagues.

We have failed to notice one thing in our frantic effort to ward off a supposed juvenile crime wave—that is, youth must learn to do things for themselves.

Everything is done for the "kids." Let them get the bat and ball and pick up teams in the park and develop some leadership and some following ship.

However, we do everything that we possibly can for the Little League. We are not opposed to this effort, but would like to see plenty of leadership on the part of the "kids."

Parents, unfortunately, begin to look for Williams', Mantles, and the like. They don't go to watch the children have some fun, but are already applying the pressure on junior to be what the father was hoping that he could be. Hit the home run! Make the fielding play!

Managers are the most harassed people in the Little League business. The manager is somewhat like a "flea on a hot griddle." He is caught between kids, mothers, fathers, and most anyone who cares to chew him.

We run them on a major basis, when they should be for the benefit of every "kid."

Possibly the whole theory of the leagues are incorrect. If they weren't originally, they appear to be. Parents, spectators, and managers ought to recognize that this is not to win a game, not to make major league ball players.

Let's give it to the "kids." Supervise and help, but let them have a great deal of fun and give more a chance to play. The day for tension and sports emphasis will come soon enough to their young lives.

Just let them play.

St. George Outfit, Zions Tied For Tinley Church League Lead

St. George Holy Name Society belted the Methodists, 15-5, Tuesday evening in the Tinley Park Church Softball league, dropping the Methodists into second place and into 3rd on percentage points. Holy Name moved up and continues with only one loss as does Zion Lutheran, but the Catholics have played one less game.

Zion Lutheran had a big 6-run first inning and used that to beat the Nazarenes, 9 to 7. However, it was the two-run fifth inning that really clinched the affair. Dale Hartwig hit a single and scored on two bad throws. Moose Nasebrandt hit a home run into left center field. These were Zion's last two runs.

The St. George Knights beat the Reformed Church for its first win of the season, 22-5.

Holy Name society was never behind in its surprising win over the Methodists. In the first meeting between the two teams the Methodists easily beat them, 7-1. In fact, a late inning home run by Ron Gallina averted a shutout on the Catholics.

Larry Gunther of the Catholics shared plenty of the heroics with three tremendous home runs in four trips to the plate.

Pitcher Tom Quigley, Holy Name pitcher, held the Methodists to just five hits and this is plenty good in the big softball circuit.

Miller of Holy Name had three hits for the Catholics.

Fine defensive work behind Quigley was another big factor in the Catholic triumph. His outfield sparked with tremendous catches thruout the entire contest.

Zion scored six runs on five hits in the first inning, getting the final two runs of the first inning when Tom Rockrohr and Bob Culp of the Nazarenes bunched together trying to catch a fly in left center field.

The Nazarenes scored three in the bottom of the first and continued pecking away at the Zion lead. They scored one in the third and fourth innings and the top of the fifth and the pair of runs that tied the contest as both teams finished two runs higher.

The Zion team played extremely well with men on bases. The Nazarenes had two and three men on in each of the last four innings, but scored just two runs, leaving eight men stranded.

St. George Knights hit Reformed with t-n-t and never let up for its first league win. The Knights opened fast and built up a lead of 17-3, and then coasted on to the victory.

Avis and Lloyd each collected three hits in the contest for the Knights.

The Knights are just one-half game in the league basement at this point. They could possibly move out with another win next week.

Two Newcomers Seek Victory At Joliet Oval

Two newcomers will be aiming for their first feature victory when the midget auto races resume Saturday night at Joliet Memorial stadium.

Bill Knight of Kokomo, Ind., and Chuck Marshall, Champagne, seek to join the ranks of the Joliet oval's seasoned veterans.

But they'll have their work cut out for them against such standouts as four-time winner Bob Tattersall, of Streator and two-time feature champ Danny Kladis, Chicago. Billy Woods, Kenosha, Wis., and Bernie Wilhelm and Bob Hauck, both of Joliet, all of whom have one main event triumph to their credit, also will be trying to shut out the two "rookies."

Meanwhile, track officials are expecting big things from Byron Fisher of Lemont, who two weeks ago just missed an unusual "triple" — victories in a heat race, the handicap, and the feature. Fisher won the feature and the handicap for the fastest qualifying cars, but placed 2nd in his heat race. That was as close as any driver has come to a "triple" this season.

Saturday's program will include four heat races, a handicap, 15 lap semifeature, and 25 lap feature. Time trials begin at 7:30 p.m. and the first race at 8:30 p.m.

A GIANT IS ILL—This big American elm, at the home of Leonard Rothenberg, 78th and Ridgeland, Tinley Park, is believed to be around 200 years old and is some four feet in diameter and until now has had good health. Last week it was feared that it had been infected with the Dutch Elm disease and Tinley officials are discussing what to do with it. Samples of branches from a wilted section have been sent to the University of Illinois for laboratory tests since other diseases than Dutch Elm cause wilt in trees. If tests show this tree to have Dutch Elm disease then it is doomed and the best thing to do, it was said, is remove it. Dutch Elm disease can be prevented, it is said, by spraying trees before the symptom appears. The disease is transmitted by beetles. The young man gazing at the big tree is a grandson of the owner, Ronald Siebrandt, 8, of 151st and Central. (Marvin Smith photo) the constant wage-price spiral robs the worker of any economic gains achieved through negotiations.

Man does not live by bread alone, but by faith, by admiration, by sympathy.

Integrity of U.S. Money is Big Stake in Steel Strike-Derwinski

"The fundamental issue at stake in the steel negotiations is the integrity of the Nation's money," Cong. Edward J. Derwinski (R. Ill.) stated in an address on the floor of the house.

"I am convinced," he said, "that the general public has become disenchanted with wage-price inflation as a way of life."

Cong. Derwinski emphasized that the reduction in the value of the dollar which follows every round of wage-price increases in the inflationary aspect is the economic consequences of this pattern. "Obviously," he said, "the reduction in the value of the dollar who finds his pay raise wiped out by runaway inflation."

Rep. Derwinski appealed to management and labor to continue their present negotiations in the best interest of all citizens with the ever-present thought in mind that economic stability, soundness of the American dollar, the further advancement and expansion of American industry and the continuing improvement in the standard of living of all citizens are goals within the reach of everyone if a new inflationary wage-price spiral can be avoided.

The young Chicago congressman told of his discussions with steel workers during his recent visit to his district, and emphasized that most workers were not interested in a huge pay raise because they realized its inflationary effect. He re-emphasized the workers' growing realization that

"Learn to Swim" Program Proves Quite a Success

The Red Cross "Learn to Swim" campaign for the Mokena Cub Scouts ended a successful two weeks July 16.

Red Cross water safety beginner program emphasizes a progression in skills from breath holding and rhythmic breathing in shallow water on up to jumping and diving in deep water.

The combined skills tests given at the conclusion of the course were 1, the pupil jumps into deep water, levels off and swims 15 yards. Without stopping or touching he turns about and swims back to the starting point. 2, Pupil does a plain front header from the deck or dock, levels off, and swims 15 yards, turns about, and starts swimming back.

Half way back, he turns on the back and rests either motionless or with gentle paddling movements for a quarter of a minute. He turns back again to front swimming position and swims to starting point.

Many of the boys passed all but these two final tests and have a fine start for the next year. All the boys who attended the classes regularly progressed immeasurably and can be proud of their achievements. The boys, Cub Scout officials and parents, also can be proud of the good behavior of the boys every day.

Mrs. George H. Bills was instructor for the course and Marilyn Ambuehl, instructor's aide.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Friant kindly donated use of their pool.

The 12 boys who passed the beginners' test and will receive cards from the Will county chapter of the Red Cross are: Russell Davis, Jim Surovick, Tommy Tilsy, Dale Booble, Douglas Friant, Robert Bills, Martin Stanis, Allan Hostert, Gerald Tomas, Gordon Bruce Jr., Paul Behen and Michael Derrig.

Also Gary Horras, Laurence Sorensen, Jimmy Burkhardt, Dick Lehmann, Lynn Gilmore, Mark Petnuoch, Robert Sorensen, Duane J. Knize, Jr., Johnny Popielek, Paul Diaguila, Chris Bellow, Donald Carroll, Ricky Book, David Ebert, and Wayne Miller.

Keith Liston arrived home unexpectedly Sunday from his camp at Beeville, Texas for a three weeks leave. His brother Dean who has been home on leave will return next Monday to his station at Orange, Texas.

Mokena Lions Will Collect Paper July 30

Games and rides will feature the annual Lions Festival to be held by the New Lenox club in that village on Friday and Saturday, July 24-25.

The committees in charge are putting the finishing touches on their plans so everything will be in readiness when the affair opens tomorrow night.

According to those in charge there will be 14 booths set up to provide entertainment, plus rides for the small fry.

One of the highlights of the festival is the annual auction. Articles are donated for this from various households in the community and their sale always makes for fun and merriment.

Persons may still contribute articles for the auction and those who have goods they will donate are asked to call Frank Chandler at New Lenox 3811.

There will be a new feature in the Festival this year, the committee announced, a special booth for the promotion of international good will thru contributions to an exchange student program.

Lloyd Berlin, whose household was opened last year to Ella Juul Jensen, student from Denmark who attended Lincoln Way high school, will be in charge of this booth.

A German girl, Hanna Heymann, is scheduled to arrive late this summer to attend school at Lincoln-Way. She will stay with the H. A. Bloomquist family, New Lenox township.

The purpose of the booth is to solicit donations for a fund to underwrite the expense of bringing Miss Heymann to the community.

The Lions Festival is held each year to raise money to finance the various civic and welfare projects of the New Lenox club.

School Enrollment Now Stands At 470 and Increasing Rapidly

By EVELYN VAN HORN
Sycamore 8-2921

District 160 will open its doors this fall with an enrollment of 470 children with a possibility of more before September. Last year the enrollment on opening day was 252 and as recently as 1954, 44 children only were enrolled in the total district. The increase in enrollment is accountable to the building of homes by the J. E. Merriam Co. and it is anticipated that the enrollment will increase a minimum of 200 students per year for the next six years.

Although the district is short of permanent housing for students, it has been able to avoid double shifts and to add to its program through the use of houses constructed for classrooms by Merriam. The district is in the process of building a second new school and planning for the third in the near future. The J. E. Merriam company has promised to set aside three houses in Unit IV for use this year as school rooms.

District 160 has officially accepted the site bounded by John on the east, Lee on the west, 187th on the north and Klines nursery on the south as the site for the second new school approved at the April election, to be purchased from the J. E. Merriam Co. at 25% of their list price. The cost to the district is $4,500. Negotia-

Township Calls Election on Road Tax Rate

A special election to continue the present maximum rate of .33 per cent for road and bridge purposes in Frankfort township will be held Aug. 4. It was announced by Harold Cooper, town clerk.

The notice of the coming election states that it is for the purpose of increasing the road and bridge tax rate from .165 per cent to .33 per cent but that is technical phrasing, it was explained.

The rate in effect is .33 per cent but to maintain it approval must be given by the voters of a township every five years. This is the year for renewal in Frankfort township Mr. Cooper said.

There will be two polling places, No. 1 in the Frankfort village hall, and No. 2, at the Cooper & Hostert garage on Front street at Mokena.

The polls will open at 6 a.m. and close at 6 p.m.

YMCA Provides Transportation For Swimmers

over variations in assessments.

Zenon Sykuta, representing the board of education of school district 160, explained the part the school district plays in tax distribution, adding that the school district is in the bottom 25 per cent in the state in the amount of money received per child in the schools.

One reason given for the increase in real estate taxes this year by Rayson, was that this is a quadrennial year when tax rates are raised and the equalization factor goes up. The general consensus of opinion was that the high tax bills were a product of the times.

In answer to questions if commercial areas would help reduce taxes, Rayson and Mayor Nally expressed the opinion that this plus industry can stabilize taxes to a point.

The mayor presented a brochure on the city from Merriam Company that is being circulated among prospective clients of a shopping center.

Coordinating Council Roger Chavanne, president of the Parent Teacher Association, sent letters to 16 representatives of organizations, both civic and religious in the community to meet with him at city hall, Wednesday, July 22 at 8 p.m.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the possibility of the formation of a Community Coordinating Council and the pooling of information and resources to develop coordinated programs of service to the community. Discussions were held on these three points: 1, needs of our community as seen by the organizations; 2, Comparisons of the planned future activities; 3, formation of a coordinating council.

MOKENA'S SEWERAGE TREATMENT PLANT as it appears from the air. The building that houses the pumps, control and vacuum tank from which the sludge is taken in cakes and hauled away—faces east. The large round tank between the two smaller ones is called a trickling filter. It is filled with stones and a pipe with outlets thru which liquids can trickle extends across the tank. This pipe or arm turns round and round. The sewage coming to the treatment plant is pumped first into the primary treatment tank, the one south of the trickling filter. After treatment there the liquid drains into the trickling filter and after sinking down thru the bed of stones goes into the small tank at the north, which is the final treatment tank. The effluent goes from there into a drainage ditch. In dry weather the effluent is treated with chlorine. The sludge from the tanks is drawn into the vacuum tank, the water removed and the caked sludge carried out to a truck by means of a conveyor. (Marvin Smith photo)

Your kitchen stays shades cleaner with a modern Electric Range

And you can boil, bake, roast, broil—do every kind of cooking completely automatically.

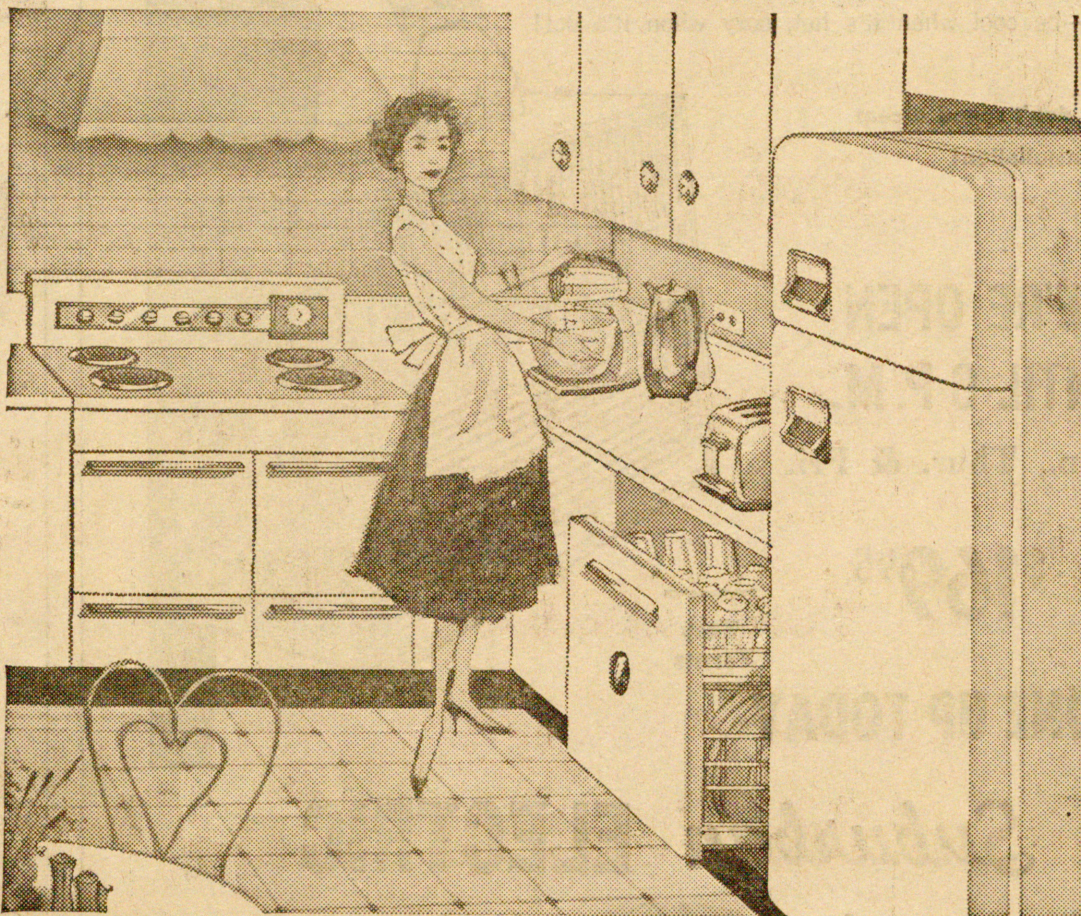

What a job it is to wash kitchen walls! You need tackle this chore only half as often, you know—when you cook with a modern electric range.

It's easy to understand why. Electric ranges burn no fuel, create no soot. Absolutely nothing cooks cleaner! But an electric range belongs in the modern kitchen for other reasons, as well. Electric cooking means accurate control of heat.

For whether you're using the surface units, baking or broiling... the cooking heat stays at the exact temperature you select. (And automatic electric controls are the most accurate made.)

It's also worth knowing that the kitchen equipped with a new electric range will stay modern for years to come.

As of the first of this year what is popularly known as the "Common Market" was created in Western Europe. After years of hope and dreaming by economists of Europe, Belgium, West Germany, France Italy and the Netherlands formed an economic union in which are a real threat to their currencies would be inter changeable with customs barriers at a minimum. The end objective is to eliminate subsidies and artificial trade barriers completely. It has sometimes been referred to as a "United States of Europe." England and the Scandinavian countries are expected to join this group in the near future.

The creation of such a large mass market makes efficient mass production of commodities possible. This, of course, will result in raising of the standard of living of the area as production on a man hour basis increases.

The economic and social development will be influenced by efficient industrial requirements rather than the narrow and often selfish aims of organized minority groups. It is doubtful that this organization could have been effected so quickly and well, without the economic chaos following World War II.

Political leaders of western Europe were frightened by the success of Russia in exploiting the social unrest of the industrial chaos and finally heeded the pleas of economists as to the prosperity that would follow creation of this great mass market with minimum trade barriers.

We of this country accept as natural the benefits derived thru having a market of 180 million people and no trade barriers. This is a most important factor in our development of a high standard of living.

Many astute observers are of the opinion that the present success of this operation has given Russia a severe defeat in her expansion plans. It is also difficult for Russia to insulate its prisoner countries from knowledge of benefits of our system.

In some informed circles there is a belief that Russia's relative economic position has been worsening rather than improving at the same rate as that of western Europe and that the present threatening attitude, is a continuation of previous blackmail attempts to force economic assistance for herself in order to bring their standards nearer that of western Europe. The cold war seems to be succeeding!

The 4H Keeping Fit Field Day was held last week, with 59 4H'ers taking part. They were weighed, measured, given tests to determine organic fitness, muscular strength and endurance. After the tests were completed and the scores written on the score cards, the 4H'ers had an opportunity to compare their scores with standard scores established for boys and girls of their own age. All the tests together, when compared with standards, tell the 4H'ers whether or not they are growing up according to schedule. Repeated participation in the Keeping Fit event, enables them to check this year's score against those attained in previous years.

The program was conducted with the assistance of health specialists from the University of Illinois. I want to thank the volunteer leaders and parents who helped record scores. Their help made the program move along smoothly and rapidly.

The South Cook 4H Plowing Contest will be held Aug. 8th starting at 9:30 am. The plowing contest committee, composed of Charles Moore, Russell Bettenhausen, Albert and Walter Reeves, all of Orland Park, and Carl Engelhardt, Tinley Park, have arranged an interesting program. After the plowing contest in the morning, there will be a Tractor Rodeo in the afternoon, starting at 2:00 pm. Present plans also include a demonstration on setting plows.

Lunch will be served by the South Cook 4H Federation. Anita Wetzel, Chicago Heights is chairman of the Federation committee responsible for the food stand. The contest will be held at 151st st., 1/4 mile west of Route 45.

Damage to corn fields by the black cut worm has decreased rapidly in the past two weeks. On late planted corn, continue to observe low spots in fields. These low spots are most attractive for egg laying by the black cut worm moth.

We received many calls recently about the Japanese Beetle. There is an area in this county, lying approximately north of Blue Island, which is under quarantine due to Japanese Beetle infestation. More information about this pest and its habits are available in a publication, obtained free from this office. This title is: Controlling the Japanese Beetle. The publication is: Farmers' Bulletin No. 2004.

Council for Handicapped Awards Special Education Scholarships

The Council for Handicapped Children for the South Suburban area has awarded two $1,000 scholarships for training in special education to two outstanding students at the Illinois State Normal University, Normal.

Miss Dianne Thiessen of Kewanee received the Franklin E. Novasad scholarship for teachers of exceptional children. Miss Thiessen is an honor student and leader in school activities such as the Kappa Delta Epsilon, a professional education sorority of which she was recently elected president.

William Paarlberg of South Holland received the Kenneth E. Underwood scholarship for teachers of exceptional children. Mr. Paarlberg is married to the former Betsy Voss of Harvey who is also at Illinois State Normal, a senior in special education for the deaf

In the western Germany port Hamburg alone, British investments are said to total about $95 million and American investments $71 million and this within the last four years. American firms are very active in surveying the potential markets of western Europe and many are establishing direct subsidiaries and purchasing an interest in already established firms.

Both Miss Thiessen and Mr. Paarlberg will complete their studies in the spring of 1960 and take up their teaching roles in this south suburban area. The two scholarships are awarded by the Council annually.

A number of educators, parents of handicapped children and friends of mentally and physically handicapped children who attended this award meeting also heard Dr. Harold R. Phelps, Director of Special Education at Illinois State Normal University discuss "The Role of Lay Groups in Meeting the Needs of the Exceptional Child."

The key point that he stressed was the importance of participation of parent type and lay groups in schools and programs for our handicapped. Dr. Phelps feels this is the only way that the special schooling problems of handi-

A healthy industrial growth in western Europe, will be of considerable aid in our own development. Industrial prosperity creates a political climate that is unfavorable to political systems that thrive on turmoil and confusion.

American investment funds now seek desirable placement in Europe and there are brokers who specialize in seeking out firms which seem to offer rewards to the investor at this time. This is a reversal of the pattern of a few years ago.

Rezoning for Two $2 Million Hotels Approved

(CNS) — Two $2 million motor hotels will be constructed at U. S. 6 (159th street) and Calumet expressway in Thornton township, but whether they'll ever be equipped with cocktail lounges is still an unanswered question.

Rezoning for the construction on the northeast and southeast corners of the busy intersection already has been approved by the county board.

But reclassification petitions to allow cocktail lounges still are pending before the commissioners. South Holland, a dry town, is protesting any zoning change that would allow sale of liquor so close to its border.

Both hotels will have 200 rooms, a swimming pool, dining and meeting rooms. The term motor hotel is applied to highway hostleries combining the parking facilities of motels with hotel services.

About 40 Plan To Attend 1960 Scout Jamboree

Plans to organize a contingent of about 40 Boy Scouts, Explorers and adult leaders to attend the 5th National Jamboree at Colorado Springs, Colo., in July, 1960, were announced today by the Rainbow Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The appointment of the Council's Jamboree committee headed by Alfred Levering, of Joliet, was announced today, by Frank Condon, of Morris, president of the Rainbow Council.

"The National Jamboree will provide a wonderful opportunity for 50,000 boys and leaders," Condon said, "for an unforgettable experience in camping, group living, and learning to know and love our nation."

"Our Jamboree contingent will visit the nation's leading cities and scenic spots enroute to the Jamboree camp and while homeward bound," said Mr. Levering. The railroads, buses and even the airlines will provide special rates for Jamboree groups, he added.

The Jamboree camp will comprise 2,000 acres of the ranch of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Johnson and is located opposite the Air Force Academy. The Scouts will be camping "a mile high" within sight of Pikes Peak.

The Jamboree contingent is open to any Boy Scout who will have the First Class rank and be at least 12 years of age by next Jan. 1 and to any explorer who has six months tenure or more by January 1, 1960. Application forms will be available at the office of the Rainbow Council, Levering said.

Members of the Jamboree committee, in addition to Levering, are: Robert McQueen, Jack Loeffler, Carl Kepner, James O'Meara, Henry L. Dean, Dr. Charles Hoffman of Joliet; Leonard Hoffman, Morris; William Asnbaugh, John Gerth, Kankakee; and Willard Perkins, Gardner. Serving as adviser is Gene E. Murphy.

Rainbow Council is composed of Will, Kankakee and Grundy counties.

If farmers carry through their intentions for farrowing 8 percent more sows this fall than they did last year, the total 1959 pig crop will be the third largest on record, exceeded only by 1942 and 1943.

Boy Scout troop 40 of Mokena spent last week at the Rainbow Boy Scout reservation, near Morris. The 17 scouts and two leaders, were Ron Badten, senior patrol leader; Jim Gorman, Wayne Swanberg, patrol leaders; Denny Cappel, scribe; along with scouts Dale Westlund, Terry Mueller, Robert Horras, Tim Hull, Thomas Hamilton, Dean Rodeghero, David Howell, Ben Sluis, Kevin Hoolehan, Thomas Roberts, George Gorman, Joe Ford, and Gregory Fant; Ray Westlund, troop committeeman and Art Omland, scout master.

The earthen dike, helping to form the lake was damaged almost beyond repair during last year's flood, so that the usable lake area is small compared to other years; so small that boating is limited to three rowboats and three canoes.

Wednesday was cookout day and each troop cooked their noon meal in the campsite areas.

Wayne Swanberg cooked for three other scouts and himself as part of his cooking merit badge requirements.

Thursday was the big night, with the scouts in cheerful competition, troop against troop in aquatics and scout skills. Troop 40 did very well, piling up a total large enough to receive a second place in camp wide totals between nine troops.

In aquatics, Tom Hamilton secured third place in the free style 50 yard dash. Ron Badten and Denny Cappel ran off with second spot in life saving. Robert Horras and Tom Roberts held out for second place in the horse and rider event. Ron Badten and Dean Rodeghero banged and bumped their way to a third spot in an overcrowded canoe roll. In fire building, Terry Mueller and Greg Fant literally ran away with first place.

Big night was topped off with an Order of the Arrow calling out ceremony. Troop 40 had three candidates, Wayne Swanberg, Jim Gorman, patrol leaders, and Ray Westlund, committeeman.

The scouts did well in advancement as well as having

Vote Today on Wheat Quotas In Will County

Voting places for the referendum to be held today, July 23 on marketing quotas for the 1960 wheat crop were announced today by Roy M. Smith, chairman Will county agricultural stabilization and conservation committee. The locations are as follows:

Ritchie town hall, and Will County ASC Office, 1253 W. Jefferson st., Joliet. Hours: 8 am. to 6 pm.

Farmers who are eligible to vote in the wheat quota referendum are all those who in 1960 will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain on a farm, except those who are participating in the 1959 feed wheat program. Under the feed wheat program, farmers may arrange with the county office to grow up to 30 acres of wheat for use only on the farm where grown without being subject to marketing quota penalties.

If at least two thirds of the growers who vote in the referendum approve the quotas, they will remain in effect for 1960 crop wheat and price support will be available to farmers who comply with their farm wheat allotments at least 75 percent of parity. Farmers who exceed the larger of the farm allotment or lot acres will be subject to a marketing penalty of 45 percent of the wheat parity price on their "excess" wheat.

If the quotas are not approved by at least two thirds of

Read Matthew 6:27-34
Take therefore no thought for the morrow; for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof. (Matthew 6:34.)

Recently I heard the story of an old clock. As the clock was set in place for use for the very first time, it meditated upon its future. The clock figured that it had to tick twice each second. That would mean 120 times every minute, 7,200 times every hour, 172,800 times every day.

At this point, so the story goes, the clock fainted from nervous anxiety. Soon it revived and saw things in a new light. It had to tick only one tick at a time. So the clock started to tick. After 50 years it was still going strong. Are we not much like the clock? We are so prone to be anxious about ourselves, about the future. The cure of anxiety is to trust in the Father's care TODAY. We need to face life in the spirit of Jesus, to seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness.

PRAYER: Dear Father, we thank Thee for Thy Son, our Savior, who can cure our anxious souls and give us peace. In the name of the Master we pray, as He has taught us, "Our Father who art in heaven . . . Amen."

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: This day I will claim the peace of mind that comes through Jesus Christ.

Taxpayers Get Another Shellacking

If the major league teams are in need of pitching talent we would like to call their attention to a fertile source of supply:

The city council of Joliet, state and federal highway engineers and Governor Stratton.

There may not be a good fast ball in the crowd but they are experts in tossing curves.

Previous to his trip to Russia last month the governor received a delegation from Joliet protesting the routing of one of the billion dollar federal aid roads thru Joliet. The delegation, headed by Attorney Robert Thomas, presented a petition carrying some 6,700 names urging that the highway in question, FAI (federal aid interstate highway) 80 be so routed that it would cross over the Illinois waterway at a point south of Joliet.

The present routing veers north from Tinley Park, makes several needless crossings over Hickory creek and the Rock Island railroad as well as thru a peat bed near Marley before turning south and then west to pass thru the south end of Joliet at enormous expense.

The governor, according to Mr. Thomas and others who called on him, is reported to have stated that he would personally inspect the proposed route before final plans were approved.

Then the governor went to Russia; came back in time to serve as one of the hosts to Queen Elizabeth; signed a few bills passed by the legislature, vetoed some and then took off for California to attend the national conference of mayors.

If the governor was able to sandwich in a personal inspection of the FAI 80 route thru Joliet or Will county no one in these parts remembers having seen or heard of him.

Attorney Thomas states that prior to departure for the mayors' conference, the Joliet city head, Mayor James P. Hennessy assured him that the council of that city would take no action relative to Highway 80 while he was away.

On Monday afternoon of last week the Joliet city council sneaked thru an endorsement of the route as originally set down. The acting mayor, Paul Friedrich, told his fellow rubber stamps that Ralph Bartelsmeyer, chief of Illinois highway engineers, had informed the city of Joliet that the routing of FAI 80 has been established and that he now wanted Friedrich's signature, as acting mayor, to a letter stating that such routing was approved and endorsed.

Friedrich signed the letter and at his request so did the other members of the city council present. He then had the letter dispatched to Bartelsmeyer by special delivery, and before the week was out Bartelsmeyer had detailed maps of the route on file at the Joliet city hall, which must be a record of some sort for engineers.

One could well term this action by the Joliet city council a bootlegging maneuver.

The Joliet city council prepares an agenda for each meeting and the public communications media of that community carries such information prior to council meetings so that anyone interested in any of the business to be brought up is informed and can attend.

But at last week's meeting there was no mention made that the routing of FAI 80 was to be considered. This was all strictly sneak stuff and Friedrich did not bring it up until just before the council was ready to adjourn.

That Gov. Stratton was speaking with a forked tongue when he said that no action would be taken on the plans until he had had opportunity to inspect the route is apparent by the action of his chief engineer in getting endorsement of the plans rushed thru by the Joliet council.

Anyone who knows anything about politics knows that Stratton's engineer is not going to seek endorsement of plans to which the governor may object — not if he expects to stay on as chief engineer.

Mayor Hennessy, of course, does not appoint the members of his council and cannot control their actions but again for those who have knowledge of politics it would seem safe to assume that when Mayor Hennessy told Attorney Thomas that nothing would be done on the highway routing while he was in California, it should be assumed the mayor must have had an understanding with enough council members to guarantee this commitment.

It is to be regretted that this action has been taken because apparently the route is now set and it is going to cost the taxpayers millions of dollars more than if the routing were changed. As far as we can see such a highway will serve no useful purpose as far as the area is concerned.

NEA bulletin states, the post office issued a postal fraud order against the firms under which Simjian does business.

Not only is this postal fraud order out against the Persian but it has also been made the subject of a bulletin sent out by the Commercial intelligence division of the Department of Commerce.

That should settle Simjian's hash for him. A postal fraud order and now a critique by the Dept. of Commerce probably has him trembling. To live in such fear as now must fill the mind of Simjian must be like living in a stone house and knowing that six year old child — strong for his age — is hammering away at the walls with a dry sponge tied to a short piece of string.

Someone, the NEA says, has investigated Simjian. Whether it was some postmaster on vacation, a representative of the department of commerce or a globe hopping editor on whom Simle has put the bite, is not explained but a report is carried in the bulletin.

Simjian is poverty-stricken, the report says, and operates from a single room which serves as bedroom, kitchen and office. The walls of his pad are papered with comic sections from American newspapers and covers of American magazines.

If the investigator was an editor he had best go back to picking cotton or whatever it was he was doing before he began editing. The report could very well have been compiled by some government bureau, it being generally uninformative. We hate to think of an editor leaving things so vague.

We feel sure that the part of the public that has stayed with this thus far would like to know what Simjian does with the papers and magazines after he gets them. He has to have an angle.

Does he make papier mache from the stuff to use in modeling caricatures of Western leaders and Uncle Sam which he in turn sells to tourists?

Has he arrived at some secret process for converting the paper into dry cereal? (He wouldn't have too far to go in this because there is great similarity in taste already.)

Or does he solicit subscriptions, pocketing the money of course, and use the publications he receives free to make deliveries?

The silly season apparently is here for the writers of the NEA bulletin as well as government bureaus because the piece concerning Simjian winds up with the notation that publishers who get mail from this character should get

Korean Vets Should Act Now to Enter Schools Under Public Law

Ralph B. Johnson, administrator, Illinois Veterans commission, warns all Korean veterans who intend to institute a program of training under Public Law 550 this fall should begin making their plans now by contacting the school they wish to attend, and apply to the Veterans Administration for the authorization to train at that school. By doing this during the summer months, there will be fewer problems when school opens in September.

Johnson further advised that veterans check their delimiting date, which is three years after date of discharge from period of service that makes them eligible for training under Public Law 550. No new program of training will be authorized after the delimiting date. The veteran must be in training on that date.

He further advised veterans who are taking one or two courses, or taking a course by correspondence, to check on their training program, as no in touch with post office officials at once.

What is the post office going to do—grant the guy a subsidy? If they aren't careful he may wind up selling them a rug.

training will be given after eight years from date of discharge. Some veterans may have to step up their training program in order to complete it, he said.

For further information veterans are invited to visit the nearest Illinois Veterans' commission office.

In Will county, vets should contact the commission service officer at Joliet Building, 4 E. Clinton st., Joliet.

The office is open Monday thru Friday between the hours of 8:30 a.m. and 5 p.m.

County Assessor Reinterprets Tax Base Manual

Because of some misunderstanding of the effect of the new assessor's manual on the tax base for 1959, Assessor Cullerton has issued a re-state ment of his interpretation of its consequences.

The assessor noted that the revised manual will produce an increase of 6 to 13 percent in assessed values for single family residences and buildings containing up to 6 units. An increase in assessed values of 6 to 63 per cent will result for multiple dwelling buildings with an excess of six units. The most severe increase in this category will fall upon slum buildings, for the most part owned by absentee land holders.

The assessor noted particularly that an increase in assessed values has no effect upon the general tax burden. An increase in values will automatically result in a decreased equalized rate, assuming constant appropriations by tax spending bodies. He did point out, however, that whenever assessed values are changed a redistribution of the present tax burden is thereby affected. The overall average increase in building values is approximately ten per cent. In those instances where a taxpayer receives less than the average increase, his proportionate share of the burden will be decreased.

The majority of small home owners will receive an increase in assessed value of less than 10 per cent. On this basis, these taxpayers will, based upon prior spending by local governments, actually experience a reduction in their tax bills.

GLENN F. LOGAN

For collectors of things that don't matter and odds and ends of information that mean little, if a nything — and that takes in a lot of us — the column this week offers a prize tidbit.

Since it comes from the National Editorial Association a presumption is implied that the item is of interest to publishers and/or circulation managers of newspapers and magazines.

It would seem to this writer that the principal interest of publishers would be that their circulation people have become infected with the foreign aid bug and are giving credit to a character whose name would indicate that he had just stepped out of the pages of the Arabian Nights.

According to the NEA, there is a man from Iran — sounds like the start of a limerick doesn't it — named Fuzant Simjian. And while residing in the East he operates like one from the West — as two companies. He is known as Simjian & Co and Fuzant & Co.

Either way he appears to have a penchant for American publications. Many publishers, according to the NEA, have received orders from this fugitive from a Persian rose garden for three-year subscriptions.

Note the subtlety of this Iranian. He flatters — by saying that he wants the paper or magazine for three years — and by running up the tab shows a disregard for money that is foreign to most foreigners, and so wins the confidence of a group usually hard to take.

Simjian promises payment for the subscription on receipt of copies and invoice.

It is indicated that some circulation departments and/or publishers say harsh things about Simjian and his promises to pay but they must admit they can depend upon him to never pay a dime.

There are some people one can never depend upon. They make promises and sometimes they keep them but not Simjian. He keeps the papers and magazines that trusting circulation staffers send him but never a promise to remit.

In a way one must admire him. Sometimes these minor racketeers give payment to some of their victims, as a come-on if nothing else, but this Persian is consistent. He just doesn't pay — period.

The thing that should interest people who are interested in the unimportant is the fact that the post office department is unleashing its might against Simjian in his corporate makeup. Back in 1957, the Climbs talus grades where pifion won't even grow. But that's all routine for this Chevy, equipped with Positraction* rear axle. It's hard at it every day for the Utah Fish and Game commission. Figure about 60,000 miles of mountaineering before this Chevy is traded. And yet the

Out in that wild, climbing Utah country, Chevy's suspension and frame and brakes, its Positraction rear axle and Thriftmaster 6 power are proving themselves under rougher conditions than most test engineers could dream up. They're proving that Chevrolet's advanced engineering and design ideas pay off—in spades—when the going gets especially mean and dirty.

Positraction, of course, is a big plus on this job, providing the sure grip needed to dig through mud, snow, loose sand, whatever comes along.
